AREAS OF INTEREST

Historically my research was largely in econometrics, particularly simulation-based methods. Over time, my interest has shifted toward empirical applications in public economics and public policy, most recently emphasizing productivity and the income distribution but also savings, pensions and income support programs.

HONOURS:

- 2018 Research Impact Award, Faculty of Social Sciences, McMaster University ($1,000)
- 2016 Graham Lecturer, Atlantic Canada Economics Association
- 2013 Wilson Symposium Lecturer, McMaster University
- 2012 John F. Graham Memorial Lecturer, Dalhousie University
- 2010 McMaster University Faculty Association Award for Outstanding Service to University ($1,500)
- 2006 Purvis Prize (with Emmanuel Saez, for a work of excellence relating to Canadian Economic policy, $10,000)
- 2006 Vanderkamp Prize (with Paul Grootendorst, for best article in journal Canadian Public Policy/Analyse de Politiques, $1000)
- 2004 President's Award for Excellence in Graduate Supervision at McMaster (co-winner for Faculties of Business, Humanities and Social Sciences)
- 1997 Honorary Professor, University of York
- 1994 Alexander von Humboldt Research Fellow (University of Munich /LMU)
- 1993 Visiting Fellow, The University of Western Australia
- 1989-1990 Alexander von Humboldt Research Fellow (Universities of Mannheim, York and Munich/LMU)
- 1986 Faculty Research Fellow, Australian National University

COURSES TAUGHT (since 2013)

- Economics 4A03 Honours Seminar in Economics (winter term 2013, 2014, 2016)
- Economics 727 Microeconomic Theory for Public Policy (fall term 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017)
- Economics 761 Econometrics 1 (fall term, 2013, 2014, 2015)
